

Virginia Association of Assessing Officers
Concurrent Session- Educational Real Estate
November 17, 2016 / 9am-12pm

This session offers presentations by two representatives from the College of William and Mary and a restoration contractor from Newport, Rhode Island.. Extensive discussion on the techniques employed and coordination of materials and historical restrictions involved with various assignments. Projects at William and Mary and the historic Carter's Grove Plantation will be discussed in detail with. Insights into time and materials, extensive historical research and expense involved in a massive new construction and restoration projects.

Instructors: Nancy Buchanan, MAI, College of William & Mary Real Estate Foundation, Wayne Boy- College of William & Mary, Tim Leahy- Kirby Perkins Construction- Newport, Rhode Island

There is no graded exam. 3 hours CE