

October 17, 1963

Mr. Fred C. Forberg
State Tax Department
Room 318, Travelers Bldg.
Richmond, Va.

Dear Fred:

Enclosed please find copies of a Resolution directed to Dr. Welton Cooper, at the University of Virginia.

These two (2) Resolutions are samples for consideration. Will you please indicate on one (1) of them your preference and return same to me. Since time is short will you please do this as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

J. T. Rose, Sr., C.A.E.
Real Estate Assessor

JTR/my

Enclosures

Whereas the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, has been the location of the Virginia Assessors Institute since 1956 and the Bureau of Administration has fully cooperated with the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers in conducting their school, and,

Whereas, Dr. Weldon Cooper, Director, Bureau of Administration at the University of Virginia and his staff have worked diligently and continuously since the inception of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers school and thereby setting an inspired example for other Universities and Assessing Associations throughout the country, and,

Whereas, Dr. Cooper and his staff in the performance of their numerous duties and activities with the University of Virginia have endeared themselves to all members of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers and have been a source of inspiration for the organization, and,

Now, therefore, be it unanimously resolved by the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers in meeting assembled, that recognition be given Dr. Weldon Cooper and his staff and they be advised of the deep appreciation and sincere thanks of this association for the services they have rendered to the people of Virginia and this Association, in making possible great improvement in knowledge and practice of the profession of real estate assessing. It is recognized and appreciated by the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers that Dr. Weldon Cooper and his staff are a credit to the Commonwealth and the University of Virginia.

And be it further resolved that this resolution be spread on the minutes of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers and that a copy be presented to Dr. Weldon Cooper and the President of the University of Virginia.

Done this 8th day of November, 1963.

Virginia Association of Assessing Officers

R. R. Woolling, President

Whereas the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, has been the location of the Virginia Assessors Institute since 1956 and the Bureau of Administration has fully cooperated with the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers in conducting their school, and,

Whereas, Dr. Weldon Cooper, Director, Bureau of Administration at the University of Virginia and his staff have worked diligently and continuously since the inception of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers school and thereby setting an inspired example for other Universities and Assessing Association throughout the country, and,

Whereas, Dr. Cooper and his staff in the performance of their numerous duties and activities with the University of Virginia has endeared themselves to all members of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers and have been a source of inspiration for the organization, and,

Now, therefore, be it unanimously resolved by the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers in meeting assembled, that recognition be given Dr. Weldon Cooper and his staff and they be advised of the deep appreciation and sincere thanks of this association for the services they have rendered. It is recognized by the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers that they have brought credit to themselves and the University of Virginia and in so doing have enabled many persons to obtain helpful information,

And be it further resolved that this resolution be spread on the minutes of the Virginia Association of Assessing Officers and that a copy be presented to Dr. Weldon Cooper and the President of the University of Virginia.

Done this 8th day of November, 1963.

Virginia Association of Assessing Officers

R. B. Keeling, President