The Architecture of Richmond's Historic Houses
Downtown Walking Tour
July 12, 2016 / 1:30 – 5:00 pm

This “walking” tour will feature guided house tours of the Virginia Governor's Mansion-1813, John Marshall House-1790 and the White House of the Confederacy-1818. The trained museum interpreters of each historic site will focus on the architectural design of these three Federal style Richmond domestic structures. The interpreters will also share the architectural evolution of each house, as well as their ultimate restoration. Brian Gordineer, AAS will provide commentary on historic buildings located on the walk between the three featured houses. . .
