The Economic and Fiscal Impacts of Agritourism on Virginia

This seminar is a compilation of data funded by the Governor's Agriculture & Forestry Industries (AFID) Fund through the Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. In accordance with (Code of Virginia § 3.2-6400), this study finds that Virginia agritourism makes substantial contributions to the economic health and well-being of the commonwealth. This session will also include discussion from working groups of members from the State Land Evaluation Advisory Council Commonwealth of Virginia (SLEAC).
